Resolved, that, as we have always admired the life and appreciated the long continued and transcendant services of Mr. Webster to the whole country, — So, we cherish his memory, with still deeper reverence and affection, now, that he has passed from us, the true type of the American Patriot and Christian Statesman.

Resolved, That we tender to the family of Mr. Webster, our sincere sympathy in their bereavement, — and assure them, that we are sharers in their loss, & that their sorrows are our sorrows.

Resolved, that in respect for the memory of Mr. Webster, the Town Hall be shrouded with emblems of mourning, for three months; and that, on Friday, being the day appointed for his funeral, all the bells in this town be tolled from 12 to 1 o'clock p.m., & that during that hour minute guns be fired.

Whereas, by the dispensation of Divine Providence, a nation is now called to mourn the death of its most illustrious citizen:

Resolved, that the Inhabitants of Brookline, in common with their fellow citizens throughout the land, are profoundly affected by the loss sustained by this Government, in the recent death of its Secretary of State.

Resolved, that, in Daniel Webster, we recognize the able jurist, the consummate advocate, the fearless defender of the constitution, ~~the friend of humanity throughout the world~~, the wise counsellor, the skilful negotiator the champion of humanity throughout the world the sagacious statesman, & the true patriot; whose love of country was not trammelled by party ties, nor limited by local boundaries.

Resolved, ~~that~~ the Selectmen of the Town be requested to carry into effect the last mentioned vote; and to cause these resolutions to be entered on the Records of the Town.

Resolved that a committee of Twenty persons be appointed by the Chair to confer with similar committees appointed by the Towns & Cities throughout our Commonwealth in respect to the means best adapted to give Expression in some appropriate and permanent form to those sentiments of Respect and veneration with which the great name of Daniel Webster is gratefully cherished in the community in which he lived.
